

SINGAPORE

New Hotel Openings and Renovations

I. The quirky and much loved South Beach Hotel has been rebranded by Marriot International. The new JW Marriot South Beach opened on the 15th of December 2016 after a $20million renovation. A new 10-room spa is set to open later this spring.

<http://www.marriott.com/hotels/travel/sinjw-jw-marriott-hotel-singapore-south-beach/>

II. AccorHotels is opening the Sofitel Singapore City Centre this July. It will be located in the multi-billion dollar Tanjong Pagar Centre, which is home to Singapore's tallest building.

<http://www.sofitel.com/gb/hotel-A152-sofitel-singapore-city-centre-opening-july-2017/index.shtml>

III. The Warehouse Hotel opened in January 2017 and is quickly gaining popularity. The property is a converted spice mill on the banks of the Singapore River and contains 37 beautifully designed rooms.

<http://www.thewarehousehotel.com/>

IV. To celebrate its 130th anniversary Raffles Singapore will be undergoing renovations in 2017. The first phase began in February 2017 and includes the iconic Long Bar and Raffles Courtyard.

Subsequently, all Buffalo Tours products based in hotel, including our Singapore Sling Master Class, will be on hold until the summer.

<http://www.raffles.com/singapore/about-hotel/>

V. Also under renovation this year will be the Grand Park City Hall Hotel from April 2017 until the end of 2017.

<http://www.parkhotelgroup.com/cityhall/about-en.html>